

Connected points are measurements that belong to a single subject, taken at each of the 10 time points.